The Perfect (Ofsted) School Governor

This book of short stories has a seed of fact around which has been woven the fiction. This is life as seen by the author among the lower middle class and the poor. These are stories of people who find their own little happiness in their struggles, people who sometimes are a little kind and sometimes a little cruel.

The Land of Rowan Oak

An extraordinary photographic documentary of the wild and cultivated plants and landscape of Faulkner s inspirational writing sanctuary"

An Aviator's Field Guide to Tailwheel Flying

I sit up and reach for my afghan at the end of the bed. I see movement at the far side of my room. I stare into the darkness trying to see what it is. Something moves across the room and stops a few feet from the end of my bed. I say it's something because it is more of a black blob then anything in particular. A chill runs down my back and the hair on my arms stand up. "Who's there, who's there?"

A Bunch of Coriander

Each of the 20,000 schools in the UK has a governing body who are an integral part of the school's major decision making processes, the results of which directly affect our children. For this reason it is essential that governors make clear and informed decisions in order to implement the best educational framework for young people. This latest addition to the hugely successful 'Perfect Series', The Perfect (Ofsted) School Governor written by a seasoned professional with 17 years' of head teacher experience, aims to be the most conclusive, easy-to-read, education jargon-busting and essential guide for teachers, governors (new and old) and school boards alike. It covers everything a governor needs to be the best that they can be, including the history of the education system in England, preparation for Ofsted inspections and their impact, leadership and governance, handling complaints, a checklist for effective governor meetings; guides to interpreting data correctly and much, much more!

Hamlet Study Guide

Poetry in Progress is a microcosm of a diverse and creative group that comes together in DeSoto, Texas Civic Center the first Monday of each month. With fellow poets and poetry lovers they share with abandon the joy, sorrow, and many shapes and shades of their inner world. By reading this book you get to eavesdrop on them and hopefully find yourself within their lines. In an article written by Sydni Thomas in the November 2013 issue of Southwest Now magazine, a founding member of the group says, "I believe poetry is all about self-discovery. Community is also about self-discovery, and we wanted to bring both together. Our goal in creating this group was to build culture and community through poetry. ... When people get into poetry it breaks down barriers." Another member says, "What a joy it is to see all of the different cultures come together and read poetry, ... I guarantee almost everyone in the group has brought a poem that was difficult to get through emotionally, we stand in and read those difficult poems for each other."

Perfek (CAPS)

A collection of traditional Jewish tales and legends from the Talmud and other sources celebrating the holiest day of the week.

Suurlemoen!

Thomas is moving to a new house, and he hates the idea with a passion. Even though his stepmother, Louisa, is quite cool, having a new half-brother or -sister is something Thomas is definitely not looking forward to. To make matters worse, the house they are going to live in is an ancient Victorian place.

Black Butterflies

Sixteen teenagers grew up in New Crossroads, Cape Town, in the 1990s. A decade later, they find themselves in markedly different circumstances. Bulelwa has a successful career in town and Bulelani is completing a tertiary education but Phalo has been killed in a gang fight. What has made the difference?

Poetry in Progress

Everyone's favorite time-travelers are changing their styles! The Time Warp Trio series now features a brand-new, eye-catching design, sure to appeal to longtime fans, and those new to Jon Scieszka's wacky brand of humor.

A Guide to the Driving Test

In "An Aviator's Field Guide to Tailwheel Flying," author Jason Blair shares his experience in a variety of tailwheel-equipped aircraft. This book describes major phases of flight and considerations that transitioning or tailwheel pilots may find useful as they look to increase their proficiency. The discussion goes beyond the physical flying skills into other tailwheel aspects, such as operational differences in makes and models and ages of aircraft. Pilots of aircraft such as Cessna 180s, Cubs, Champs, Maules or other aircraft of similar type and size will find this content helpful. This book is the author's result of years of instructing and taking notes previously passed on to his own students, now compiled and shared with the broader aviation community.

PANHANDLE RAIDERS

Sixteen-year-old Zenzele is not prepared to stand by while her father, Sizwe, dies of AIDS. Instead, she and her ten-year-old sister Mpumelelo journey from the townships to an exclusive Pretoria suburb to find their estranged uncle Vusi and ask for his help.

Tut, Tut #6

"Nobody writes Westerns with more heart and soul than James J. Griffin. Guaranteed enjoyment for any Western fan!" James Reasoner, author of TEXAS WIND and THE CIVIL WAR BATTLE SERIES. "Jim Griffin brings to life fictional characters interspersed with real life experiences in the same voice as Max Brand and Louis L'Amour. This fifth novel in the series is as riveting as the first four." Sergeant Jim Huggins, Texas Rangers Company F. When a series of robberies and murders breaks out in north Texas, Ranger Jim Blawczyk and his partner Smoky McCue are ordered to track down the killers. Their assignment is complicated by a dying eyewitness's claim the outlaws are United States Army cavalymen. After a train is robbed and the crew viciously murdered, the Rangers are forced into a desperate race to stop the renegades before they strike again. Jim raced through the coach, leapt the gap to the next car, and had walked halfway up its aisle when Brady rose from behind a seat to level his gun at the Ranger. Jim had just begun to thumb back the hammer of his Colt when the train lurched and he was thrown off balance, the gun falling from his hand and spinning out of reach as he went to his knees. Brady took slow, deliberate aim at Jim's chest.

My Pulse, His Will

"This booklet is a general guide about what is in the test, not a book of road rules. For more detailed information on road rules refer to the Road Users' Handbook or the Australian Road Rules."--P. 1.

Steering by the Stars

She'd vowed to never trust him again...now he was her only hope As a single mom Hannah Leith faces challenges daily—and deals with them. But when her son gets into serious trouble she's out of her league and turns to the man she blames for her police husband's death, Brandon Martin. Brandon still carries the guilt of his partner's murder, which only grows heavier when he finds himself growing closer to Hannah and her children. But he'd promised to take care of the man's family and that is what he will do, even if it means ignoring his own yearning for Hannah.

Poems About Nature

Fourteen-year-old Josh McAllister is in the midst of teenage angst. He hates being compared to his brainiac sister, he never gets what he wants, and his friendships are in the toilet. Josh blames all his troubles on his parents, who have made a fortune off their new invention—and ruined his life in the process. With the hope of bonding more as a family, Josh, his parents, and his sisters, Anna and Julie, leave for the Bahamas on their private plane. Just as Josh and his mother conclude one of their worst arguments yet, the plane begins to violently shake. At the insistence of his parents, Josh, Anna, and Julie have no choice but to parachute out of the plane and watch it explode in mid-air just seconds later with their parents inside. Horrified, Josh and his sisters soon land in an uncharted island where it is now up to them to find their way out of the cold, dark jungle and claim their inheritance before their greedy uncle seizes it for himself. In this exciting action adventure, a teenager and his sisters race for their lives, learning more about themselves and their own inner strength than they ever imagined.

Flowers of the Nation

My purpose in writing this book is to help others understand the importance of loving yourself and others after a horrible tragedy and recognizing through faith that God will always be at your side. I wish you strength to stay confident with your inner self, finding comfort within from God and those around you as you continue on your journey. Know that the life that left you is a gift from God to be treasured for your lifetime.
